

The Midlothian High School Band Boosters

is proud to present the

Eighth Annual Showcase of Bands

Saturday, Oct. 4, 2014

5 p.m.

Midlothian High School

401 Charter Colony Parkway, Midlothian

At least one dozen high school marching bands from around the Commonwealth will present their 2014 field shows in competition.

The bands competing represent Atlee High School, Glen Allen High School, J.R. Tucker High School, Mills E. Godwin High School, Park View High School, Warwick High School, Cosby High School, Meadowbrook High School, Matoaca High School, Monacan High School and Manchester High School.

The Midlothian High School Marching Trojans will perform last, in exhibition.

The event will culminate with all bands – over 750 student musicians and auxiliary – on the field for the presentation of awards. This is the only marching band competition held in Chesterfield County.

Admission is $7. Food and beverages will be available for purchase.

For more information, contact Gordon Rawls, Director of Bands, (804) 378-2440, ext. 4136, or visit www.Midloband.org.